"THERE IS NO ROYA

The present High School Building was erected in 1934. At that time it consisted of a library, Principal's office, Home Economics Department, laboratory, Commercial Department, gymnasium, and seven classrooms. In 1941 the Agricultural Department was added and has been very active since. In 1947 the Sheltman property adjoining the school grounds was purchased and used for the Music Department which has been a great asset to the school. In the summer of 1949 four additional rooms were built to relieve the crowded condition—three classrooms and a locker room. This made a total of ten classrooms. The grounds and surroundings are those of Montgomery Female College, one of the outstanding women's colleges of the South in its day, and which makes a suitable setting for one of the most beautiful school structures in Montgomery County.

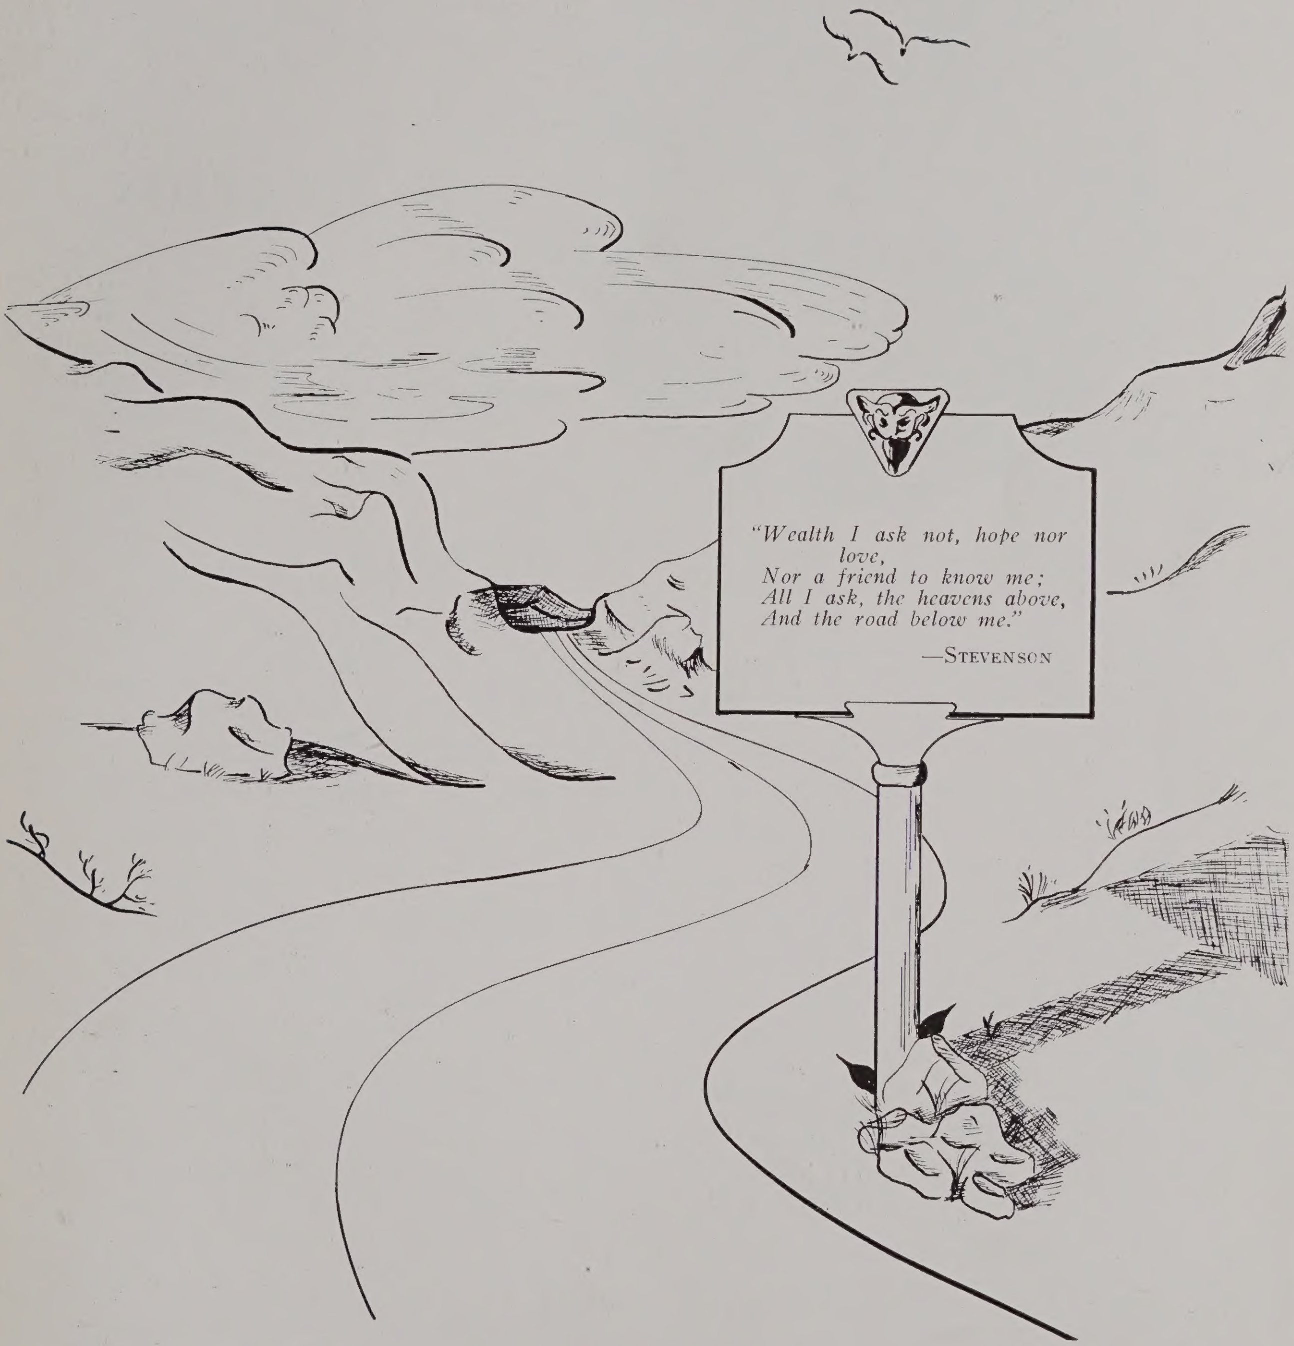
FOREWORD



"*Wealth I ask not, hope nor
love,
Nor a friend to know me;
All I ask, the heavens above,
And the road below me.*"

—STEVENSON

The staff of this, Volume VI of THE DEMON, has strived to present a complete and true picture of life at C. H. S. for 1949-50.

We have, so far, been traveling along a road and thus we have selected "ROADS" as our theme. We have used our Classes as the Travelers who have been helped over the rough places by the Faculty, Travelers' Guides. Then by wandering from the Highway of Knowledge to the Parking Areas and Waysides for Clubs and Sports, we Detour for Features; finally arriving at Sponsors' Overlook. All of this in the end leads back to the center of activity—the school—and completes our picture and we can truly say, as Molier did, "The road is long from its project to the completion."

DEDICATION

With hearts full of love and gratitude for her faithful and untiring services, her patience and understanding, her many kindnesses and thoughtfulness in helping us over bumps in the road . . . We, the Senior Class, take pride in dedicating the 1950 yearbook to

A MESSAGE TO THE STUDENTS AND PARENTS OF C. H. S.

It is a privilege and pleasure for me to be your principal again. Your fine spirit has been an inspiration to me. To the Class of 1950—the Faculty and I wish you well and may your actions always be guided by high ideals and worthy ambitions. You have had a part of all that C. H. S. stands for, and we expect each of you to become citizens of our democracy in a manner highly pleasing to us all.

In the years ahead may this written and pictorial record bring back memories of school days happily and satisfactorily lived. May it serve to revive your spirit when it is low and spur you on to greater achievements. I shall rejoice in your successes and sympathize in your misfortunes.

Sincerely yours,

Evans L. King

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Henry Edgar Knowles, Jr. . . . . President

"Our President's a boy everyone knows;
He will be popular wherever he goes."

Mabel Lee Linkous . . . . Vice President

"May she always stay the same;
Changing nothing but her name."

Ruby Ann Creasy . . . . Treasurer

"Life is short and sweet,
But so is she."

Robert Kendrick Perdue . . . . Secretary

"He has a right to be jolly and gay,
Because his nature is just that way."

Peggy Jean Waddell . . . . Reporter

"A brighter student you'll never find,
Oceans of knowledge flow through her mind."

Motto
"We will either find a way, or make one"

SENIORS

Top Row Across

Ernestine Ruth Ashworth

"She knows how to work and how to play;
How to be serious, pleasant and gay."

William Edward Atkinson

"Farmer Bill'll make his mark some day;
Because he learned farming, the scientific way."

Margaret Ann Bird

"Peggy, a rare bird in this world;
She's got the boys in a whirl."

Ida Ruth Bishop

"A neat little package of beauty and poise;
She's quiet, cooperative and never annoys."

Addie Ruth Conrad

"Serene, composed and a believer in truth;
This is the description of Addie Ruth."

Second Row Across

Seymorah Fagg Bolton

"Silent and patient, not much does she say;
But she will succeed in her very own way."

Mary Jane Brice

"Short and cute and athletic;
She's the girl with the go and get it."

Norma Reed Brice

"Her voice is low, her intentions sweet;
She's gentle, courteous and very neat."

Jane Grant Brown

"In this case it's very confusin';
When I'm seein' one, I'm seein' twos'n."

Fourth Row Across

Jeaneen Cox

"Into mischief, all the time;
But nevertheless she's really fine."

Third Row Across

Julia Canter Brown

"The other one of a pair of two;
To each other they're always true."

Lorene Myrtle Caldwell

"Many friends she has today:
For her kind and helpful ways."

Frances Louise Chumbley

"Always happy and full of glee;
A basketball player, and a good one is she."

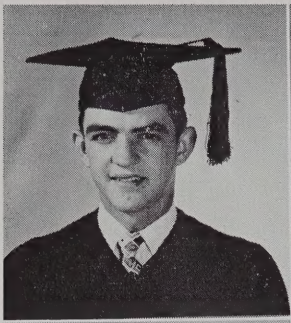
Floyd Henry Collins

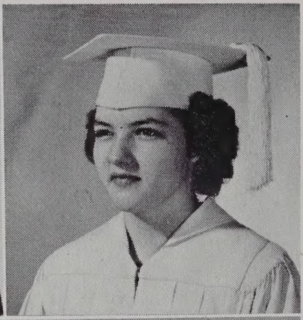
"Playing Football, he's the star;
Also in Chemistry he'll go far."

Iris June Creasy

"She is kind, sincere and sweet;
Iris is a girl that can't be beat."

SENIORS



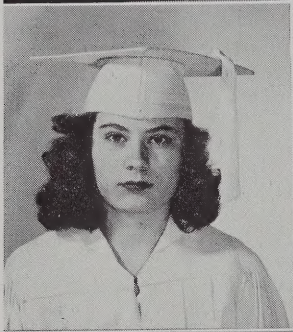


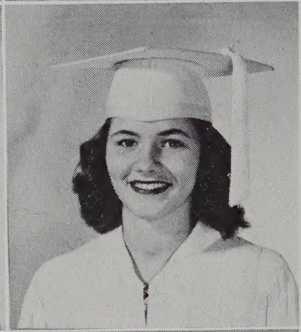
Donald Jordan Dunlap

"Chosen by his classmates as all-round scholar;
Don is the boy that others will follow."

Louise Kent Dunlap

"Tip-Top as our Editor, believe you me;
A genuine personality, and nice as can be."



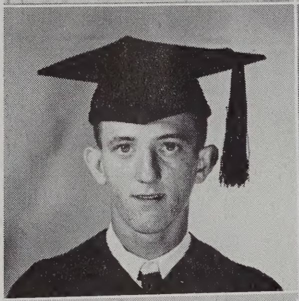


Dorothy Lea Epperly

"This cute lass with rosy complexion;
Spreads her charms like an infection."

Lois Lavenia Francisco

"Ze Cisco Kid she ees so smart;
She knows how to take and break a heart."

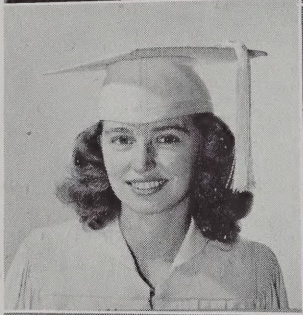


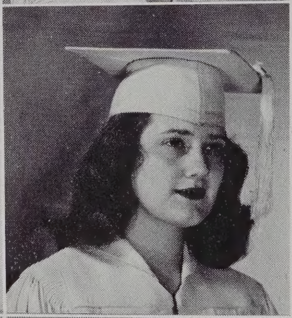
Clarence Melvin Geiser

"On the football field or the basketball court;
Clarence is a guy we'll always support."

Geneva Fay Geiser

"Geneva also plays basketball;
Clarence's sister, you'll recall."



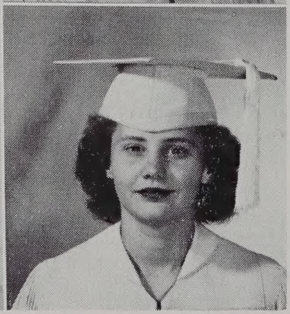


Eunice Elizabeth Gearheart

"She's neat, blonde, gentle and sweet;
A fine combination that's hard to beat."

Barbara Ann Goodwin

"A smiling face, a pair of lips;
Is often why a fellow trips."

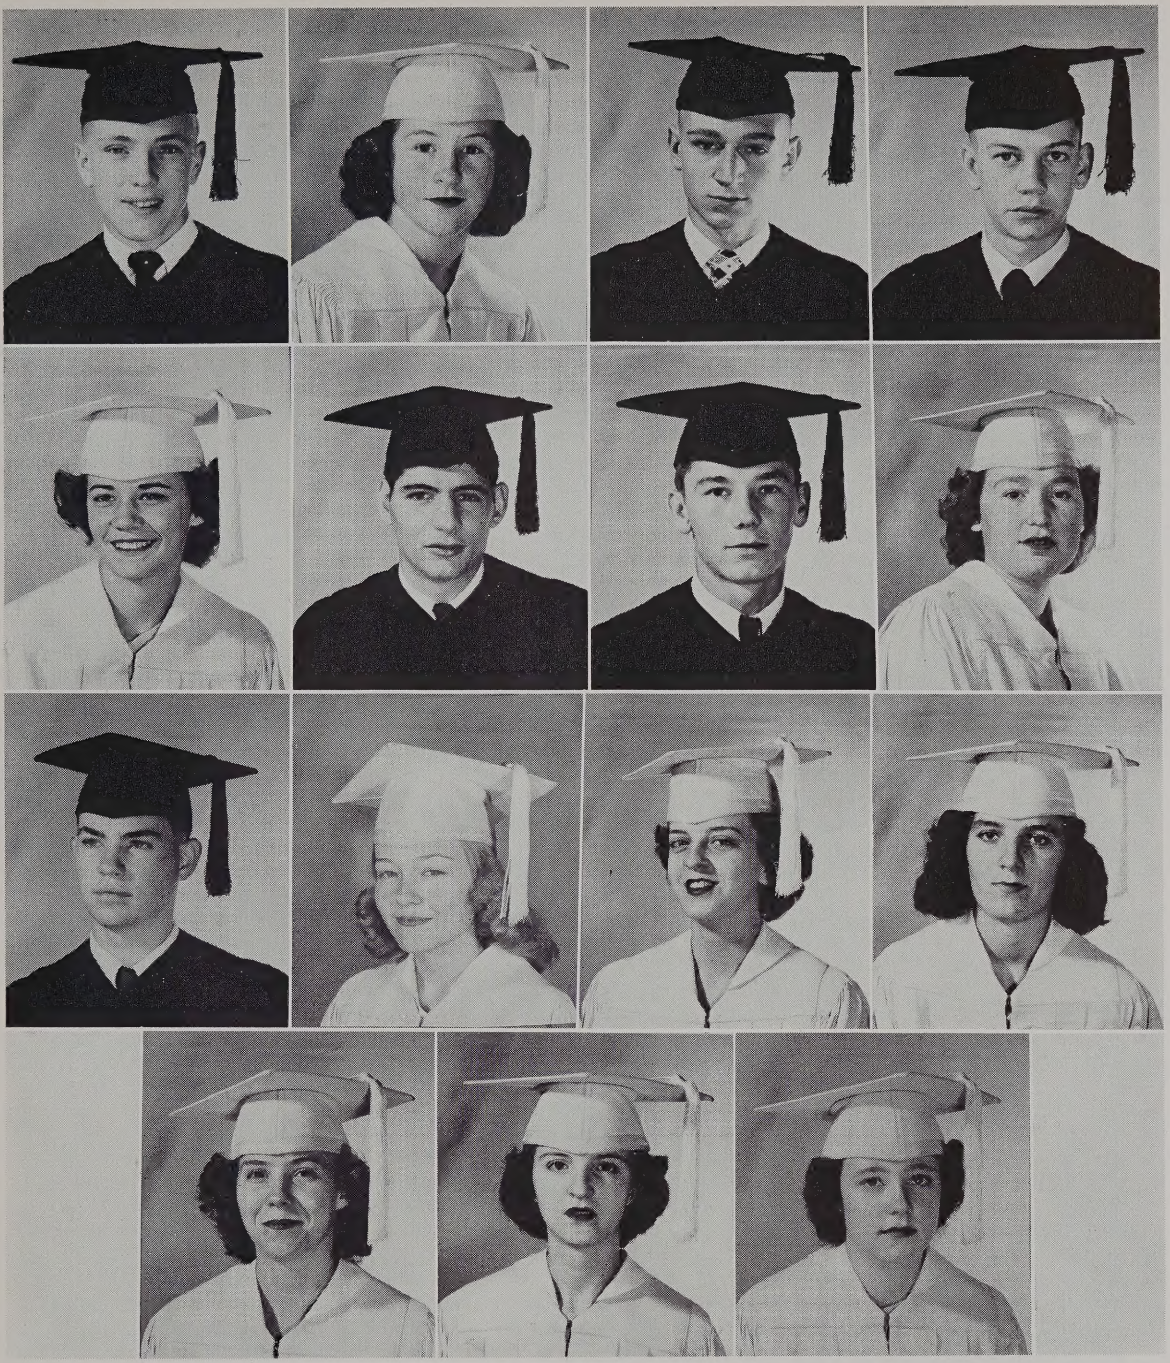


Frances Nadine Gregory

"Nadine is the type that impresses you:
She's loyal, honest, sincere and true."

Laura Joan Hamrick

"A nice girl is hard to find;
Joan's the one we have in mind."



SENIORS

First Row Across

Phillip Roy Harman

"Good looks and brains wrapped in one pack;
There's nothing at all that Phil could lack."

Mary Aleen Harris

"Witty, jovial and ready for fun;
A red-haired bombshell is this one."

William Ronald Hawkins

"On a football gridiron or basketball court;
In fact, any place he's a good sport."

Cameron Mason Hess

"A happy-go-lucky, wise-cracking lad;
Sometimes, but seldom, you'll see him sad."

Second Row Across

Hazel Helen Hill

"On the basketball court, she's right on the beam;
A real asset to her coach and team."

John Charles Houliares

"Oh where, oh where is our little John gone?
He's never in class at the sound of the gong."

John Henry Karr, Jr.

"Our married man, a football star;
An all-round man designed to go far."

Glenna Faye King

"This girl has (Communist) hair;
An' she's cute beyond compare."

Third Row Across

William Pierce Lambert

"His outlook for the future is really fine;
He'll use every chance to train his mind."

Verlon Gray Lawson

"When we have such a director as Verlon;
Nobody can put a better play on."

Margaret Sue Lucas

"Always 'hep' and up to date;
A personality that's first-rate."

Mary Alice Miles

"A steadier worker would be hard to find;
And to the basketball team a veritable gold mine."

Fourth Row Across

Mae Jeanette Miller

"A nice smile, a winning way;
Jeanette's our friend, indeed, we say."

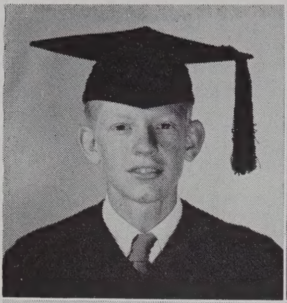
Wilma Elizabeth Morrissette

"One who is loyal, sincere and true;
A friend to all and never blue."

Dorothy Mae Morris

"She may be quiet, we'll all agree;
She's just as likable as she can be."

SENIORS

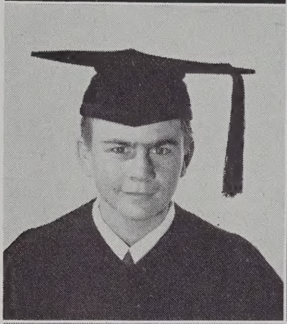


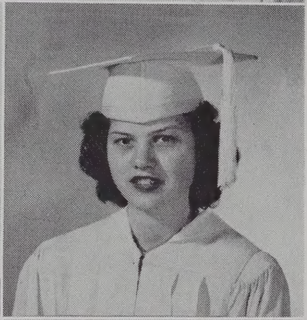
Billy Hamner Patterson

"He is witty, he is wise;
He is a corker for his size."

Virginia Madaline Phillips

"We met Virginia only last September;
But she's a girl we'll always remember."



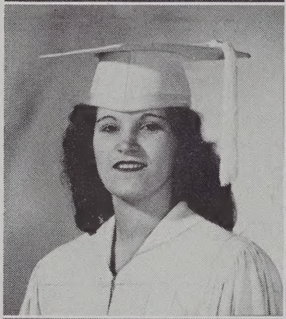


Aster Richardson

"Aster is quiet and sincere;
We've enjoyed having him here."

Ruth Ann Roberts

"Kind words and sweet thoughts are natural for Ruth;
You'll not find one to beat her, in truth."

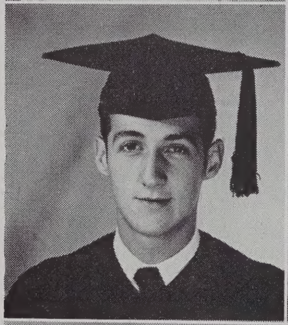


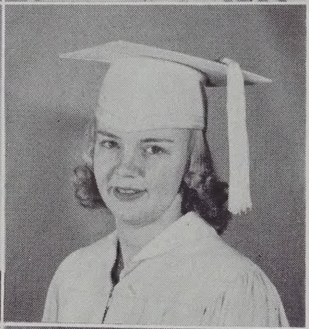
Bettye Jo Shephard

"A beaming light for all to see;
A nurse in white she longs to be."

Donna June Slusher

"Talented, sincere, trustworthy and steady;
Whenever there's work to do, Donna is ready."



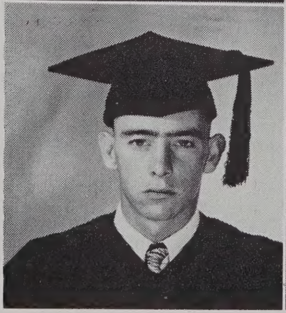


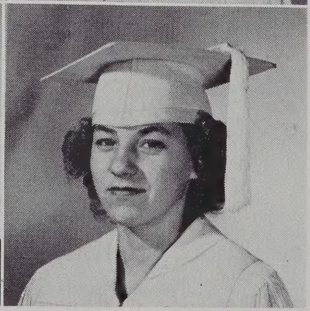
Julian Norfleet Slusher, Jr.

"A modern Sinatra, or else a "Bing";
In television, he'll sure be king."

Susan Cothran Smith

"A pleasant way and heart of gold;
The highest ideals she doth uphold."





Harry Hansford Stanger

"Harry's a modern Danny Boone;
An F. F. A. boy right in tune."

Thelma Faye Stanger

"That stuff in her head surely isn't sawdust;
A nice girl and rather modest."

SENIORS

First Row Across

Bobby Williams Sumpter

"President of the Betas, do you know why?
He's a fine boy and an excellent guy."

George William Thornton

"Always a gentleman; very reserved;
The best always will be deserved."

Doris Deane Underwood

"Sweet and true, an artist, too;
Our yearbook art we owe to you."

Lowell Eugene Wade

"Negative or affirmative, when possible he's on top;
There's no debate about it, he surely hits the spot."

Second Row Across

Harry Adam Wall, Jr.

"As restless as a chipmunk's tail;
You couldn't keep him still even tied to a rail."

Edwin Walters, Jr.

"As a manager, he can't be beat;
A better fellow you'll never meet."

Philip Harman Weeks

"Comedian Phil—always gabbin';
Maybe C. B. S. will grab him."

Lester Jack White, Jr.

"L. J. is a fellow who's nice to know;
He'll make friends wherever he may go."

Third Row Across

Evelyn Christine Willis

"A pretty girl with a diamond ring;
Soon for Chris those bells will ring."

Alma Grace Woolwine

"Life for Peggy is like a bubble;
Happy, carefree with never a trouble."

Harriet McClanahan Word

"She'd stop St. Peter at the gate
To ask a question, and then be late."

Dorothy Lee Wright

"A happy girl, we call her Dot;
Her friendly ways we like a lot."

THE 1950 DEMON SENIOR . . . .

At the carnival this spring, we were pulling our hair wondering how we could ever finish the class prophecy for "Zirkle's Deadly Deadline." When all of a sudden our attention was attracted by a gypsy who asked if she could tell our fortune. We were backing away slowly when Donna June thought of an easy way to get that ???"&! prophecy written. She whispered her plan in my ear and after a private conference we asked the gypsy if she would predict the future of our classmates.

Agreeing to our proposition she led us into her mystic tent. On the table set the crystal ball which we realized would save us the trouble of writing that dreaded prophecy.

To our surprise we noticed the ball had become clouded and the gypsy began to relate to us what she saw. "First," she said, "I see a flutter of papers—library slips, sheet music, and pages from a school paper. Now it's beginning to clear and behind these papers sits Louise Dunlap who is now Librarian at C. H. S. in charge of all publications of the school. Beside her stands Pierce Lambert who is getting a stern lecture for not having the pictures he had made recently for the Annual.

"Now the scene changes to another part of the school. I see Sue Lucas teaching her class a new method of shorthand which she has invented. In the next room Jean Waddell is teaching D. E. The club has now won top national honors.

"The crystal ball has become filled with smoke and flames. As they clear I see Harriet Word bravely fighting the flames that occurred when one of her pupils followed her directions instead of the book's. I also see she has discovered the 97th element accidently. She named it Kingsowderum in honor of her beloved science teachers.

"Up the hall in the Home Economics Department Bunny Bolton is giving a lecture on 'Why My Cakes Fall.' Over in the agriculture shop, Aster Richardson and Harry Stanger are trying to teach the boys how to milk a cow without getting kicked. The crystal ball seems to be fading and I can't see the school anymore."

"I guess that's all of the Class of '50 that will be at C. H. S. by that time," Donna June said. "Can you see any of our other classmates?"

"Wait," the gypsy proceeded, "I see a club meeting of the Society of Secretaries of the Class of '50. Norma Brice, Iris June Creasy, Thelma Stanger, Addie Conrad, Eunice Gearheart, Nadine Gregory, Dorothy Morris, Mary Jane Brice, and Jeanette Miller are listening to a heated argument between Ruby Creasy and Virginia Phillips. It seems that they can't decide who is the better boss, Phil Weeks or Bobby Sumpter, both are leading business men of Christiansburg.

"The scene now changes to a laundromat where five familiar faces are reflected in the glass of the Bendix. Verlon Lawson, Mabel Linkous, Dorothy Epperly, Dorothy Wright and Jeaneen Cox, who are all happily married, are talking about the recent marriage of their old class president, Buddy Knowles, and a wealthy young widow."

As this scene fades, we see that Christiansburg's social life has been brightened by the addition of several new clubs. These are now meeting in the newly built Recreation Center. The club for young working girls is meeting. Alleta Jo Olinger, Ruth Ashworth, Lorene Caldwell, Peggy Woolwine, and Faye King, who are all leading sales clerks in the stores of Christiansburg, are listening to a lecture by Ida Ruth Bishop, who had just discovered a recipe that has made Thompson and Hagan famous.

Through this newly constructed center the crystal predicts that a pro-football team and a pro-girls' basketball team will be established.

....PROPHECY

In the gym Mary Harris, Hazel Hill, Frances Chumbly, Geneva Geiser, Mary Alice Miles, and Lois Francisco are all warming up for one of their hardest games.

Outside on the football field, John Karr, Clarence Geiser, and Ronnie Hawkins are getting a lecture from Ed Walters, their manager.

"I predict that a Hall of Fame will be erected in the Recreation Center. I see the paintings of several of your classmates. The inscriptions read:

"To Bobby Perdue, whose outstanding acting in the Broadway production, 'Damsels in Distress,' has made this community famous.

"To Jane and Judy Brown, the Toni Twins, who helped to build this center through the fortune they made while posing for Toni Home Permanent ads.

"To Cameron Hess, the famous singer, whose recording of 'All I want for Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth' has made him nationally beloved.

"To Floyd Collins, the scientist, whose inventions have helped the modern world of Chemistry.

"To Bill Atkinson, the great horseback rider, who has formed the famous 'Bill Ropin' Rodeo.

"To Susie Smith, whose nationally read comic strip, 'The Little Demons', brought fame to her former classmates and teachers by animating them.

"To L. J. White, the millionaire, who made his fortune by inventing a method of quick fence building for anyone who has to decorate for a Junior-Senior.

"Down in the corner of these paintings I see another of your classmate's name, for Deane Underwood has painted all these portraits."

Again the scene changes and I see Julian Slusher running the theater. The newsreel is showing shots of Phil Harman, who is telling how to get rich from your father's business. Another news item for ladies shows Joan Hamrick working in her Interior Decorator's Shop. There is also a special political reel showing Lowell Wade making a campaign speech for Senator of Virginia.

In the advertisement part of the movies shows a new, modern Drive-In Restaurant owned by John Houlaires. In another advertisement Barbara Goodwin is driving a new Buick for the Buick Ad.

Now I see the corridor of a hospital where Bette Jo Shephard is giving information as to the whereabouts of Head Nurse Donna June Slusher. It seems as though Donna June has taken a leave of absence to sing at the much delayed wedding of Chris Willis and George Thornton. In this same hospital in an office I see Dr. Peggy Bird, Psychiatrist. What is this? Dr. Bird is psychoanalizing none other than Harry Wall! But the crystal ball predicts that her time will be wasted. In a private room at the hospital Admiral Billy Patterson is recuperating from a trip around the world on the S. S. Education. It seems that Billy has just received his college education at the age of 42.

The crystal ball is fading now. I can't see any more of your classmates, the gypsy tells us. So Donna June and I leave the tent and are once again a part of a real world. For a while we remained quiet, until suddenly I see Don Dunlap just coming out of the carnival manager's office and remembered that the gypsy hadn't predicted anything for him. I asked him what he was doing at the carnival and he explained that he was getting ads for the Roanoke Times. It seems that he has just received the job of business manager when he finished school.

We then hurried home to write down the future of our classmates as predicted to us by the gypsy.

THE 1950 DEMON

SENIOR LAST WILL . . . .

We, the Senior Class of 1950, realizing that we have many valuable assets do hereby make public in this, the Commonwealth of Virginia, our Last Will and Testament, revoking all other wills previously made.

I, Harry Stanger, do hereby will to Carlton Boyer my ability to be late each and every morning.

I, Floyd Collins, do will and bequeath to Barbara Wirt my ability to sit through Solid Geometry and still not understand anything Mrs. Gilbert explains.

I, Dorothy Morris, hereby will and bequeath to Mickey Dixon my ability to talk my head off and never get anything said. (I'll bet Mrs. Jewell wishes I had gotten rid of this sooner.)

I, Faye King, will to Bobby Linkous my new way of studying—To carry all my books home and then open one of them.

I, Eunice Gearhart, being of sound body and absent mind, do hereby will to Winfrey Huff my curls. (Which I never did have.)

I, Virginia Phillips, being of sound mind and good health do bequeath my C. H. S. swagger (swing) to Don Jones, being very glad to get rid of it. Also I bequeath my various nicknames to Peggy Bradley in hopes that she doesn't have as different assortment and as many as I do.

I, John Karr, being of strong feet and weak mind hereby will and bequeath to Bobby Williams my bicycle parts and a light that doesn't burn that he sold me.

I, Don Dunlap, being of ————?? (You can figure it out), do hereby will and bequeath to Joann Willard my ability to bother Rose just when she's busiest. But don't be too hard on her. Also, being of fatigued body and worn-out feet, do hereby will to Billy Miller the ability (which in two years of labor never obtained but dearly desired) to get an advertisement for the annual on first attempt without having to return to the same place a dozen times before finally receiving it. Good Luck!

I, Harry Wall, being of lowly brow and high mind do will to B. B. Brown my stupidity in hopes that he will be stupid as I am.

I, Chris Willis, being of body and sometimes mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Sammy Snuffer my ability not to scream "ouch" every time someone pulls his long lovely locks. (Of course there's a little difference in length.)

I, Jeaneen Cox, being of sound body and absent mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Henry Nixon my crew haircut (which I never did get).

I, Joan Hamrick, do hereby will and bequeath to Betty Creason my ability to go to a baseball game and know nothing of what is happening.

I, Edwin Walter, being of sound body and weak mind, will and bequeath to Clifford Costigan my ability to be manager of the football team and to get along with the players (as I never did).

I, Mary Jane Brice, will to Glada Gearhart my place on the basketball team in hopes that she won't have to be the bench-warmer as much as I have.

I, Ida R. Bishop, do hereby will and bequeath to Pauline Huff my shorthand book and hope that she can make better use of it than I can.

I, Peggy Woolwine, being of a questionably sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Eddie Williams my lovely blue eyes in the hope that he will wink at as many girls as I did boys.

I, Alleta Olinger, do will and bequeath to Eunice Boyd my ability to have English under Mrs. Zirkle for three (3) years.

I, Bobby Sumpter, being of weak mind and even weaker body (after 4 years of slave labor at C. H. S.) do will and bequeath to Troye Hawley my ability to unknowingly to myself tell jokes and make a fool of myself at Beta Club meetings.

I, Verlon Lawson, being of sound body and blank mind, do will and bequeath to Ralph Vanhoozier my ability to be called "practical minded" by Mrs. Zirkle.

I, L. J. White, Jr., do hereby will to Barbara Miles some of my weight that was willed to me.

I, Mary A. Miles, hereby will to Mabel Wisely my position as a guard on the C. H. S. team in hopes that she won't foul out of every game as I did.

I, Clarence Geiser, being very witty, do hereby will and bequeath to Curtis Anderson my ability to tease Coach Caldwell and get by with it.

I, Frances Chumbley, hereby will twenty-five pounds of unneeded weight to Claude Duncan.

I, Bettye Shephard, will to Louis Thompson my name of Dark Eyes in hopes that you will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Bunny Bolton, being of sound mind(?) and body do will and bequeath to Nancy Linkous my ability to make people believe untruths and disbelieve the truth.

I, Bill Atkinson, hereby will to Jack Kitts my very deepest interest in my Senior History and English Class and hope that you will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Louise Dunlap, do cheerfully and gladly will to Nancy Whitlock the path down the middle of the hall which was worn there by my many trips back and forth while taking annual pictures.

I, John Houliares, do hereby will to Pauline McCann the ability to make 20 on an English test, to be divided by 2 and make an average of 10 and not feel badly about it.

I, Susie Smith, being of sound mind and body do will and bequeath to Hal Clarke my favorite brand of peroxide in hopes that he may find it useful in some way.

I, Peggy Bird, being (?), do hereby will and bequeath to Halsey Chrisman my nickname "Curley" in hopes that he will be able to go to football games without all the curl coming out of your hair as I never did.

I, Deane Underwood, being of strong body and weak mind do hereby will to Carl Akers my special spelling of the word VERRY (very) in hopes that he will not have to write it correctly 100 times for his English teacher as I did.

I, Billy Patterson, do hereby will and bequeath to Kenneth Britt my new locker, which on this 14th day of December, I have not yet received.

I, Cameron Hess, having a strong body and a weak mind hereby leave to Freddie Eames my dear old English book with hopes that she can get more out of it than I did.

I, Norma Brice, do hereby will and bequeath to Billy Morrissette my ability to say the wrong thing at the right time.

I, Bobby Perdue, will Virginia Chrisman my blonde wig which I used in the Senior Play.

I, Ruth Roberts, hereby will to Betty Hixon my "Tale of Two Cities" hoping she will enjoy it as much as I did.

I, Pierce Lambert, being of a hearty appetite do will and bequeath to Joe McKenzie two of my abilities. The first is being able to eat candy in class while sitting beside Mrs. Zirkle, and the second is being able to get out of class for the purpose of doing nothing.

. . . . AND TESTAMENT

I, Jeanette Miller, being of weak mind and sound body, do hereby will and bequeath to Robert Sutphin my ability to giggle any time and any place and get by with it. (Any place except Mrs. Zirkle's classroom.)

I, Buddy Knowles, being of weak mind and soul, do hereby will and bequeath to Ralph Basham my funny book of "A Tale of Two Cities" in hopes he can make as many reports on it as I did. Also I do will and bequeath to June Reed my ability to get on all the teachers' nerves.

I, Addie Conrad, being of weak mind and sound body do hereby will and bequeath to Ann Henry Smith my ability to pass a mirror and never look in it (ability I never put in practice).

I, Donna J. Slusher, being of tall stature do will and bequeath to June Berry five inches of my unwanted height.

I, Mabel Linkous, being of tall stature and weak mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Frances Smith my ability to get to type for Mr. Smith and then have Mrs. Smith find all my mistakes.

I, Ronnie Hawkins, weak in body, but still weaker in mind do hereby will and bequeath to "Zeke" Epperly my gym shorts in hopes that he can wear them.

I, Philip Weeks, being of weak mind and body, do hereby will unto Bobby Shelton part of my insignificant height, the height that always proved to my advantage in making the basketball team.

I, Phillip Harman, being of stout back, but weak mind, do hereby will to Bobby Wright the old dirty fox tail on my bicycle.

I, Aster Richardson, do hereby will to Everette Harris my old gym shoes, hoping that they will not hurt your feet as much as they did mine.

I, Betty Morrissette, being of weak body and weaker mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Bobby Gerald my ability to giggle and talk in D. E. Class and not be sent to the office.

I, Iris J. Creasy, do hereby will to Carey Cowart my longest fingernail which everyone hates.

I, Nadine Gregory, hereby will to Peggy Collins my ability to make A's in government which I never could.

I, Barbara Ann Goodwin, being of unstable mind, after four (4) years at this "institution of learning," do hereby will to Peggy Pannell my ingenius ability to skip school almost every Monday without being expelled and my nickname of "Lightning."

I, Geneva Geiser, being very weak-minded, do hereby will and bequeath to Patsy Rose my ability to play basketball. P. S. Don't use it or you'll be sorry.

I, Jane Brown, being here and that's all, do will and bequeath to Doris Akers my ability to sit in class and listen and not hear a thing. Also, I do hereby will to Margaret McGuire my place in Mrs. Mergler's heart. I hope you have the best of luck.

I, Harriet Word, being of clean face and mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Helen Whitlock my ability to wash my hair and face while getting a drink of water from those —$?x—fountains in the hall.

I, Ruby Creasy, do hereby will and bequeath to Doris Chafin my seat in second period History class in hopes that she will have as much fun as I did.

I, Thelma Stanger, being of absent mind and sound body do will and bequeath to Jack Bostwick my ability to give pigtails for Christmas presents in hopes that he will have as much fun as I did.

I, Dorothy Lee Wright, do hereby will to Vance Oliver my gym socks in hopes that he will darn the holes as I never did.

I, George Thornton, being of strong mind and body, and in "love" do will and bequeath to Janet Altizer my ability to go steady for one year without having a fuss with my girl friend. Also, I bequeath to Richard Wirt my ability to beat Tommy Karr in the face without getting my eye blacked in return.

I, Sue Lucas, being of ungodly mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to Freda Wade my ability to get into more trouble with the teachers and principal than any other Senior girl. Also (after spending so many years in this institution?), do hereby will and bequeath to Martha Wilkerson my old moccasins that I've worn for three (3) continuous years, hoping they will get her as many places as they did me.

I, Judy Brown, being of feeble mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to Jerry Sarver my ability never to talk in class (This ability was never recognized). Also, I do hereby will and bequeath to Joanne Engle my ability as a lover in hopes that she makes better use of it than I did.

I, Lois Francisco, being of tired and doubtful mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Shirley Carter my ability to wink with one eye. (I had a horror of missing something if I shut both.) Also, being of beautiful body and face, do hereby will and bequeath to Grace Eanes my conceit.

I, Julian Slusher, being of good health and no mind, do hereby will Betty Miles my place which I have filled at C. H. S. for the last six (6) years. Also, I will to Phyllis Keith my ability to get along with Bob Williams hoping that she can do as well.

I, Hazel Hill, being high-minded and weak spirited do will and bequeath to Joan Epperly my place in study hall (assistant librarian) hoping she can always skip study hall and never get caught. Also, being sound in mind, body, and spirit (Joke, Son), do will and bequeath to Betty Broce my basketball uniform "No. 4" hoping that she doesn't get the jitters as often as I.

I, Jean Waddell, being of some physique, but little mind, do will and bequeath my knowledge in my six-year-old notebook to Cecil Bean in the doubtful belief that it will make him as dumb as it did me, and to Maxine Allen my ability to wear spike heels to school all day and not have to soak my feet at the end of the day.

I, Mary Harris, having an ungodly mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Don Smith, my old saddle oxfords that lasted me three (3) years in hopes they will last him just as long and to Don Atkinson my wave clip that I wore on the average of once a week in hopes that it will make him a better wave than it did me.

I, Dorothy Epperly, being of sound mind and weak body, do hereby will to Margaret Sue Stubbs my ability to giggle in Mrs. Jewell's history class and get by with it.

I, Lowell E. Wade, being of weak mind and muscle-bound between the ears, do hereby will and bequeath to Dorothy Shelton my ability to talk without saying anything.

To the entire Junior Class, we leave our carefree minds and to Mr. King all the wonderful History we have made to be added to the Curriculum.

Last, but not least, to the faculty, we leave an appreciation for all they have done in guiding us and to them we—just leave.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It was in September, 1946, that 90 frightened and dazed freshmen entered the halls of old C. H. S. We were given a card called a schedule, but we were continually found in the wrong places.

We were divided into four sections and Mr. Sowder, Mrs. McKee, Miss Weaver, and Mrs. Wilson were assigned as our sponsors. The presidents were chosen by homerooms. They were Don Dunlap, Lois Francisco, Eugene Steward, and Mary Ashworth. In some manner we managed to survive our first exams.

This year was to all of us a wonderful start to be topped off by our winning second prize for our original stunt, "Rationing After Fifty Years."

In 1947 back we came with a few members missing. We were firmly planted in the halls and hearts of all, at least the halls of C. H. S. This year we had for our sponsors Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Haner. Don Dunlap was our president.

Our Junior year, we started off with a bang. We were guided by Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Lawrence. We choose Buddy Knowles for our president.

Our main project was the School Paper. The last minute rushes to meet the deadlines were plenty nerve racking, but the paper was always on time.

Of course in every Junior's life is the highlight of ordering his ring and this, the reward for our labor, we did with much excitement and confusion.

Then came the Junior Play. We had a wonderful time putting on our first play which was entitled "Here Comes Charlie." It was a great success.

This year we were determined to, and did, win first place for our stunt. It was an adorable baby show with members of the class as babies—"Very Successful." Bobby Sumpter was voted the prettiest baby.

The climax of this wonderful year was the Junior-Senior. To us it was the best ever given in C. H. S. and to others it was rated at the top. The theme was "In an Old Fashioned Garden." The gym had never before looked so beautiful and the music was excellent. We had the C. I. I. Orchestra directed by Z. Holmes.

In 1949 we were nearer reaching our goal. Through the halls we came rejoicing. We believed ourselves to be dignified Seniors and we told everybody about it. They agreed with us after a little persuasion.

We had with us 69 of the 90 we had started with, and about 10 picked up by the wayside, but by Christmas we had lost four more leaving 65.

We were organized under the sponsorship of Mrs. Zirkle and Mrs. Gerhardt. We also found ourselves with a new principal, Mr. King. Buddy Knowles was again chosen as our president.

Our Senior Play, "Damsels in Distress," was another big success. We always seemed to be displaying our unusual Dramatic Ability.

We had a few moments of the thrill of wearing caps and gowns when our Annual pictures were made.

We were very fortunate to be the first class of C. H. S. ever to be able to go to the University of Virginia to see its team play. While we were there we visited Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson. This was a great trip.

All through our four years, we have enjoyed football games, basketball games, parties, picnics, May Day Festivals, dates and other activities too numerous to mention.

How astonishing, most of us managed to get through exams, commencement speeches, and all the joys and sorrows that go with commencement exercises.

So it is with tears in our eyes and lumps in our throats that we have come to the time in our lives when we must bid our high school days farewell. They have been happy days which we will never experience again, but we hope that the history we have made at this Institution of Learning is worth while enough to be recorded.

One Day at School

Tommy had been to school one whole day,
The eagerness he had left with,
Was all gone away.
"The teacher don't do anything
But ask questions", he explained
"And so-o many girls.
Gee! are they a pain?
I just don't believe I'll go back another day
Jeepers, what's the use?
" don't know anything anyway

CLASS NEWS

SENIORS

From the Senior Class we bring you the news of the activities of November.

The class has received plastic book covers with the "Demon" and the High School name on them. These are very useful for they will show pride in our school, and above all, save books from dirt and destruction. Anyone who wishes to purchase these may do so by contacting any member of the Senior Class.

The Senior Calss mirror for the annual has been voted upon but it will not be made public until the annual arrives.

Three girls were chosen by the class from which one will be selected by the faculty to receive the annual D A R award.

Be sure and look in the next school paper for the report on the Senior play

FRESHMAN SECTION D

The following class officers have been elected in Mrs Marshall's homeroom:

President — David Harman
Vice President— Thomas Chumbley
Secretary and Treasurer— Marie Conrad

JUNIORS

On November 9, the juniors held a meeting. Several items of importance were discussed including a bake sale, ordering books for the junior play, and a class party.

* * *

The class held a bake sale on Saturday, November 19. One section was located at Cavalier Furniture Store, and the other section at Hall Brothers' Furniture Store, and food was also sold at Mick-Mack in Cambria. The response from members of the class and from the people in the community was wonderful and a total of $58.10 was cleared

The Junior Classs was very excited when the announcement was made that the time had come to order class rings'

Mr C W Winegar of Josten Company explained the different kinds of rings that could be ordered Nearly everyone in the class ordered and had the deposits in on time

We hope to receive them around April 1, 1950.

* * *

The class is planning a party which will be held on Tuesday night, December 13, in the gym. The two sections will play basketball The girls and boys in Miss Weaver's room will play the girls and boys in Mrs. Smith's room Frances Smith has been elected captain for the girls and Carlton Bowyer for the boys in Room 209, and Joan Epperly captain of the girls and Louis Thompson captain of the boys in room 208.

"For the common things of every day
God gave men words in the common way,
For higher thoughts men think and feel
God gave the poet words to reveal.
For the heights and depths that words can't reach
God gave men music, the soul's speech."

This club is in the first year of its existence, having been organized in September, 1949. The main purposes are: to promote business education and to provide recreational, inspirational and social opportunities for all members. It is a national organization and all high school business education students are eligible to become members. We hope to receive a charter in the near future.

The Tri-Hi-Y is a Youth Division of the Y. W. C. A. The high lights of the year are the Thanksgiving Pageant and the Christmas Pageant, both carrying out the themes of the seasons and showing excellent dramatic ability of those participating. Along with the members of the Hi-Y, the members attend a different Church in the community one Sunday each month. The purpose of the club is to encourage and maintain higher standards of Christian Character.

The Monogram Club is made up of those boys and girls who have played Football and Basketball, the Cheerleaders and the Managers of the Teams. The Club had a successful initiation program for new members, which it hopes will become an annual event. The activities of the Club included selling programs at the games, the sponsoring of the Home-Coming Dance, the King and Queen of Football and an assembly in which letters were presented.

DISTRICT SIX TOURNAMENT

On March 4, and 5, 1949, the District Six Girls' Basketball Tournament was held at Christiansburg High School, with Mrs. Mergler, girls' Coach of C. H. S., acting as Chairman.

The four teams competing in the contest were Radford, Pulaski, William Byrd, and Christiansburg. In the opening game Radford met Pulaski. At the close of the game the Radford lassies had a victory of 44-32.

The second game on Friday afternoon was between William Byrd High School of Vinton and Christiansburg. Christiansburg lassies won with a 44-19 final score.

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock Pulaski met William Byrd. Pulaski was victorious with a 42-33 score.

The most exciting game of the tournament was the final contest between Radford and Christiansburg, each seeking for the top seat in District Six for the season. Starting line up for Radford was: Forwards, Dehart, Webster, McCraw. Guards: Hensen, Howard, Wright. For Christiansburg were: Hill, Smith, Harris as forwards and Knowles, Miles and Delvezis as guards. At half-time C. H. S. led with a 15-14 score, but the Bob-Kittens were victorious with a 35-26 score. The order in which the four teams came in the District were: Radford, Christiansburg, Pulaski and William Byrd.

The defeat to Radford was the only defeat for the C. H. S. girls for the season. They had 11 victories and the one defeat to their credit.

The gym was gaily decorated in the colors of the four schools, and each section for each school was decorated for the spectators from that school. "Welcome" in the different colors was at the end of the gym.

At the close of the tournament the Girl's Tri-Hi-Y of C. H. S. entertained the four teams and coaches in the Home Economics Department.

The tournament was a great success, as all schools showed grand sportsmanship and all the games were exciting contests. The tournament cleared a nice sum for the school fence fund.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

(Tune: There's A Long, Long Trail A Winding)

When we're out upon life's highway
And we think of school;
We'll recall our happy days
Days of joy and bliss.
Old remembrances will throng
Thro' our memories.
We'll remember friends and teachers
Through we're far away from home.

There is sorrow in our hearts
As we say goodbye.
Time has come for us to part
We must travel on.
Tho' the road before us stretches
Many a weary mile;
We will journey without faltering
Facing trials with a smile.

Chorus

There are long, long trails a winding
into the land of our dreams;
When the memories of our high school days come back, it seems.

There are long, long days of waiting,
until our dreams all come true;
Till the day when we will meet once more—
Goodbye, good luck to you.

SCHOOL SONG

(Tune: W. and L. Swing)

Oh C. H. S. is just the school for me
With all her pupils and her faculty;
To keep her on top always is our aim
And come back some day when we've all gained wealth and fame.

It is the best school in the land we know,
And that is why we all do love her so.
You can search this whole world far and wide
And never find a school like C. H. S.
RAH, RAH, RAH!

MAY DAY—1949

"OVER THE RAINBOW"

Ann Jones, May Queen
Hazel Hill, Maid of Honor

The program opened with the Glee Club singing "Now Is The Month of May," followed by the procession of the Queen and her Court and the crowning of the Queen.

The following dances and songs were very attractive:

A Powder Puff Dance—"Powder Your Face With Sunshine."

A duet dance by Harriet Word and Jimmy Childress, "Cruising Down the River."

Raindrop Dance.

A solo by Joyce Myers, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

The Maypole Dance by the members of the Court, "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows."

"Favorite Strauss Waltzes" by the C. H. S. Band.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AND PROM—1949

The C. H. S. Gym was turned into a charming Southern Garden with the stage converted into a Southern Mansion and the colors of both classes, lavender and yellow and white and green, being used in crepe paper and spring flowers throughout the gym. A white picket fence surrounded the garden and a picturesque wishing well was in the center. On this occasion the Junior Class entertained the Faculty and the Senior Class.

The program was as follows:

Invocation	DON DUNLAP
"Open the Garden Gate"	BUDDY KNOWLES
"Close the Garden Gate"	ANN JONES
Song, "In An Old Fashioned Garden"	LOUISE DUNLAP CHRIS WILLIS DONNA JUNE SLUSHER
"Dirt In Our Garden"	RONNIE HAWKINS
"Rocks We Have Moved"	FLORENCE DELVEZIS
"Seeds We Have Planted"	HAROLD AKERS

Gifts were presented to the members of the Senior Class and the Faculty. These were drawn from the well.

The music for the dance was furnished by the C. I. I. Orchestra with Mr. Z. T. Holmes directing it.

This occasion will always linger in the memory of all who enjoyed it.

SPRING MUSICAL CONCERT

An excellent program of music was presented in the Auditorium by the Girls' Glee Club, the Boys' Glee Club, and the C. H. S. Band with Mrs. S. Y. Scruggs as Director.

Group I consisted of five numbers by the Band.

Group II, six numbers by the Girls' Glee Club.

Group III, three numbers by the Boys' Glee Club and two by the Mixed Chorus.

A free will offering was taken for the purpose of buying uniforms for the Band.

After the program, a reception was given in the Home Economics Room for all the guests. It was a most enjoyable program and a delightful occasion.

Synopsis: Larry Elliott, thinking he is to become the guardian of a small boy is jolted to find that he has taken a girl to raise. The reason is that Charlotte is called Charlie who arrives with Uncle Aleck Twiggs, both true products of the Ozarks. Larry's fiance, Vivian, Vivian's mother and Larry's snobbish Aunt Fanny, all conspire against Charlie and Uncle Aleck. They go away. After many complications and mix-ups, Charlie returns as a georgeous Charlotte who flutters all masculine hearts. Uncle Aleck, who now has money, has also undergone a great change. The characterizations were well done and the play was a big success.

VIRGINIA GIRLS' STATE AND OLD DOMINION BOYS' STATE

The American Legion Auxiliary and the American Legion, sponsors of Virginia Girls' State and Old Dominion Boys' State, give the youth of Virginia an opportunity to learn their state government through actual practice and participation. During the week of July 17-22, 1949, 264 girls and 404 boys met on the campus of V. P. I. and learned the mechanism and ideals of Democracy. It is a real opportunity offered to students in their third year of high school to inform themselves of the governmental problems which will one day confront them.

The seven days at Blacksburg were filled with fun, excitement, and hard work. In this time State Conventions were held, also party caucuses and compaign rallies. The girls and boys were divided into cities and each elected a mayor, council, city attorney, and other city officials. The highlight of the week was the election of the Governors and the Inaugural parades. A recreational program was maintained which included softball, volleyball, track, swimming, and folk-dancing. Contests between the cities were held, the winning teams receiving medals. Various entertainments were provided each night—movies, Boys' Stunt Night, Girls' Talent Night, the Southlanders, and the Governors Ball. On Saturday graduation exercises and the alumni luncheon closed a most interesting and valuable week of work and fun.

Those attending from C. H. S. were Don Dunlap, Bobby Sumpter, Billy Patterson, Louise Dunlap, Mable Linkous, and Susie Smith.

Louise and Don Dunlap have the distinction of being the first twins to attend Boys' and Girls' State.

OPEN HOUSE

NOVEMBER 10, 1949—8:00-9:30 P. M.

In observance of National Education Week, the Faculty of Christiansburg High School held open house for the parents. The guests were greeted by Harriet Word and Louise Dunlap. Donna June Slusher registered more than one hundred who called that evening. Each teacher met them in her home room. In the Home Economics Department, refreshments were served. Mrs. Schlacks presided at the punch bowl. She was assisted by Mrs. John Atkinson, Mrs. T. H. Clarke and Mrs. S. Y. Scruggs. The above picture shows two of the patrons, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Mensh being served.

KING AND QUEEN OF FOOTBALL

October 31, after the home-coming game with Narrows, a dance was sponsored by the Monogram Club and at intermission the King and Queen of Football, Floyd Collins and Mary Harris, were crowned by Coach "Tex" Tilson. These students were elected by a vote of the Student Body and the identity of the winners was kept secret until this occasion. Floyd has been an outstanding Football player and Letterman this season and Mary has been an active participant in basketball and is a cheerleader.

Those receiving the next highest number of votes were Lois Francisco, Ruby Creasy, Mabel Linkous and Peggy Bird who made up the Queen's Court.

SENIOR PLAY

"DAMSELS IN DISTRESS" DECEMBER 2, 1949

The Cast (As shown in picture)

Geraldine Ware, a dramatic student	Mary Harris
Jimmy Love, a glamour boy	Bobby Perdue
Aunt Eustacia Carstairs, who loves cats	Harriet Word
Mrs. Guppy, an eagle-eyed landlady	Louise Dunlap
Shelby Parsons, a medical student	Ronnie Hawkins
Natasha Federovna, a temperamental Russian	Jean Waddell
Braymer Babcock, a poultry-minded Uncle	Pierce Lambert
Mike and Bill, Deliverymen	Phillip Harman Philip Weeks
Ethelbert Meeks, who has an ingrowing disposition	Billy Patterson
Mrs. Meeks, who loves a masterful man	Donna June Slusher
Pamela Royle, an art student	Sue Lucas

Directors

Mrs. Gerhardt Mrs. P. H. Zirkle

Synopsis: Pamela and Geraldine share an apartment in Mrs. Guppy's rooming house. When Aunt Stacia and Uncle Braymer decide to visit them, they force Jimmy Love to impersonate a fictitious housekeeper, whom they call Mrs. Jones. Both the Uncle and Aunt try to doctor poor Jimmy, clad in a woman's wig and a kimono, and much trouble is caused. Complications multiply as Jimmy's jealous fiancee, a fiery Russian, and Pam's sponging Fiance Shelby, appear on the scene. Pam and Gerry invent lie after lie, until their store is exhausted and their Uncle and Aunt find them out. They are paid off with a good sound spanking. This Comedy was screamingly funny from beginning to end and each character part was played perfectly. The cast as well as the audience will ever remember the "Damsels In Distress."

APPRECIATION

The Senior Class of 1950 wishes to take this opportunity to express its thanks and appreciation to:

the many loyal fans who have supported our athletic teams,

Mr. Shelton, our staff photographer, who worked so patiently with us,

Mr. Cannaday who has been our adviser from The Stone Printing and Manufacturing Company,

Mrs. Schlacks who willingly gave her time to assist with the art work on the annual and did such a fine job, the faithful advertisers and boosters without whose aid it would have been impossible to publish this annual,

our Principal and all our teachers who have given their assistance,

our parents who have helped in many ways,

and to the countless others who have cooperated with us.

THREE THINGS

Three things to love—courage, gentleness and affection.
Three things to admire—intellect, dignity and gracefulness.
Three things to hate—cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.
Three things to delight in—beauty, frankness and freedom.
Three things to wish for—health, friends and a contented spirit.
Three things to like—cordiality, good humor and cheerfulness.
Three things to avoid—idleness, loquacity and flippant jesting.
Three things to cultivate—good books, good friends and good humor.
Three things to contend for—honor, country and friends.
Three things to govern—temper, tongue and conduct.
Three things to think of—life, death and eternity.

"If heaven be no more than
a country road—
If heaven should be only
this, I say
It could not be a better close of day."

—Edith Thompson

When, in the future, memories are becoming dim and you have traveled far along life's road, if this Annual helps you retrace the steps of your journey and you can relive those carefree moments and unforgettable joys of your high school days, the Staff of The Demon will be rewarded and will feel that all their efforts were not in vain.
